We can send you two more screens and we are ready to ship it to you. But UPS told that they cannot ship it to your address because it is a remote area. We will try to find other option to see if we can make the shipment. We will fully refund you and cancel this order for you if there is no way. We will keep you noted if there is any updates. Please wait patiently. Thank you!

regards,
Caleb

Hi! The package is in large size and it is also very heavy. UPS would not accept this order and Canada Post is a extremely expensive option. We will fully refund you today. Really sorry about that.

regards,
Caleb

We are in province but our place is city... Usually I ordered in eBay or other online site and no problem at all. I always got what I ordered. Just keep me posted... Thanks for your message...
